

Dae-Lee Arrington (USA - Native American & African descent) – Recording Artist, Vocalist

David 'Dae-Lee' Arrington is a GRAMMY Nominated producer, recording artist and creative entrepreneur. As a founding partner of Hue House, David is also very active as an advocate for an equitable Charlotte Arts community. With the division that exists in our society today — and his unique experience on many sides of the cultural walls that divide us — David believes that we are better together and utilizes his influence toward this goal. His vision is to create spaces where diverse groups of people are brought together via the power of music. @daeleemusic
