

Maya Gomez (Germany – Swiss and Filipino descent) - Guest Choreographer

Maya Gomez was born in Switzerland. She is now based in Berlin and working as a freelance dancer and performer artist. Maya started her professional career in 2010 working with the young dance company IT Dansa in Barcelona. In 2012 she moved to the German capital to collaborate as a freelancer with various dance companies and art projects, such as the Kungliga Operan in Stockholm, Berlin Biennale, Habemus Corpus Cie in Barcelona, Gwyn Emberton Dance company in the UK, Song of a Goat theater in Poland, and Teatro Regio in Italy. Since 2013 Maya has been collaborating on a regular basis with the renowned company, SashaWaltz & Guests. In 2019 she was given the soloist role in The Rite of the Spring with the dance company Tanztheater Erfurt. In addition, she is studying to become a Feldenkrais instructor. Maya has been collaborating with Moving Poets Berlin since 2014 and is now a dance and choreography director for them. She can be found at <https://www.facebook.com/maya.gomez.5891>.

Call to action:

“Let’s not be judgmental. Let’s not be ignorant. Let’s inform ourselves before being afraid of the unknown.

*Let’s be kind with every single person from the foreigner arriving next door to the chief at work.” –
Maya*